Only One Survivor.

Some years ago when the City of Martinique was overwhelmed by the eruption of Mount Pelee, the sum of $1400 was raised in New York City to aid the survivors and held in the city treasury. The only survivor was a negro prisoner, rescued with difficulty days subsequently. He joined a circus and was lost. The names of the subscribers were lost and now Mayor McClellan asks for a constitutional amendment to turn the money to some useful purpose and prevent its gathering by compound interest into the enormous sum of $12,000,000,000 a thousand years hence.

Without Politics.

In discussing the proposition of keeping politics out of municipal affairs in San Francisco during its period of recovery from calamity, the Fresno Republican says: "San Francisco knows who are its best and most capable men. Mayor Schmitz knows, and when he hastily selected his emergency committee he did it by glancing down the city directory, and picking the names of the men most needed. He found most of them in the ranks of his political opponents, but he did not care, and the people approved. The people had not elected and Schmitz had not appointed such men in ordinary times, but it was not from lack of knowledge. It was lack of desire to get the best men or the best government. That desire now exists, and so long as it continues San Francisco will have good government without politics.

Unclaimed Letters.

The following letters remain unclaimed in the local postoffice: W. J. Boyce, Mrs. J. Billings, Mrs. Harry W. Brown, Albert L. Clothier, Joe Cardose De Costa, May Coffey, Mrs. W. C. Davidson, F. W. Joe, Al Johnson, Mrs. Rachel McKinnie, L. H. McClintock, Mrs. C. McCormick, Jeff Moore, Edith Abram 2, Capt. W. S. O'Donnell, Jacob Pellizori, O. J. Pierce Jack Pretts, P. E. Robson, Albert E. Schevabacher, Miss Daisy Smith, Manuel Tervis 2, Henry Tonks, Mrs. Leona Thompson.

Ocean Shore Right of Way.

Senator Perkins today reported favorably from the Commerce Committee Representative Hayes' bill granting a right of way across Pigeon point light house reservation to the Ocean Shore Railway company. The measure has already passed the House.

An Early Betrothal.

In the early days of California the daughters of the Lugos were sought in marriage by the best families of the state. It was a boast that they were even courted in the cradle, as when the young officer Colonel Ignacio Vallejo, being in San Luis Obispo on the occasion of the birth of a daughter to the Lugos, asked her father for the hand of the day old baby, provided when the time came to fulfill the contract the senorita should be willing. This seemingly absurd betrothal took place. The child grew up to be an intelligent as well as attractive young woman, married her betrothed and became the mother of many children, among them Mariano Guadalupe Vallejo.

Binding a Bargain.

In the book of Ruth a shoe is mentioned as being handed over to ratify a bargain, and the custom in a sense seems to have been repeated later, for in the year 1002 certain bishops were put into possession of their sees by receiving a glove. These may have been richly jeweled gloves, for such formed part of the episcopal habit, and when some abbots thought fit to array themselves in similar hand covering peculiar only to bishops they were forbidden their use by the council.

Gladstone's Early Joys.

When Mr. Gladstone was quite an old man it chanced that he and Mr. Chaplin were staying at the same country house together on a visit. One night after dinner the Grand Old Man asked Mr. Chaplin whether his grandmother had not lived in a certain street in Mayfair. Mr. Chaplin replied that she had done so. "Well," said Mr. Gladstone, "I remember it distinctly. I lived next door to her for awhile when I was a child. She used to give evening parties. When the carriages were assembled to take up, my brother and I used to creep out of bed—it was in the summer time—softly open the window, get out our squirts and discreetly fire away at the coachmen on the boxes. I remember the intense delight with which we used to see them look up to the sky and call out to ask each other whether it wasn't beginning to rain."

The Horse's Hoof.

In its present elaborate form the hoof of a horse is the most perfect instrument of support which has been devised in the animal kingdom to uphold a large and swiftly moving animal in its passage over the ground. The original toe nail and the neighboring soft parts connected with it have been modified into a structure which in an extraordinary manner combines solidity with elasticity, so that it may strike violent blows upon the hard surface of the earth without harm. The result is that the horse can carry a greater weight at a swifter speed than any other animal approaching it in size.

The Chinese cook, named Charley, at the Capitol hotel displayed wonderful bravery and admirable presence of mind during the earthquake on April 18th that made him a hero. Notwithstanding that bricks were falling all around him he stood at his post of duty and calmly put out all the fires in the kitchen before leaving the building, thus obviating all chances of a conflagration in the hotel. Such deeds of bravery are worthy of commendation.

Gerald Kirkpatrick, who was killed by a falling building in San Francisco during the earthquake, died a hero and a martyr to the couse of duty. He had been employed by the San Francisco Gas and Electric company and the day before the great disaster was promoted to take charge of the switch boards. When the earthquake begun all the other employes immediately left the company's building, but young Kirkpatrick remained at his switch board and turned off all the switches, thus perdhaps saving many lives. On leaving the building he was killed by the falling wall. While a greatful public may never erect a monument in his honor he was just a true a hero as the soldier who sacrifices his life on the battle field for his country .

Sequoia's Debate with Palo Alto.

(Nora Wright.)

On Friday afternoon, the 25th, the final contest in a series of three debates between the teams of Sequoia and Palo Alto high school will take place. It is an event long looked forward to by both schools and their respective communities since each school has won the cup once, and this is to be the decisive contest.

The debate is to be held in the Odd Fellows' hall on Main street in Redwood City, and will begin soon after the arrival of the Palo Alto students by private conveyance at 2:30 p. m. An important feature of the day will be the school songs and yells, which the students have composed for the occasion. Enthusiasm has reached its highest pitch among Sequoians and all their loyal supporter throughout Redwood and they will leave nothing undone which will spur on their team to victory.

Our team was chosen at a tryout held at the school on March 9th, and it is composed of Miss Edna Clark, Miss Grace Davis and Mr. Richard Hellman, with Mr. Will Taylor as alternate. Miss Clark will be leader of the team and Mr. Hellman will handle the rebuttal in his usual convincing manner. Three of our debaters, Miss Davis, Mr. Hellman and Mr. Taylor are residents of Redwood, while Miss Clark is from San Carlos.

The Palo Alto team is composed of Mr. Murray Shanks, Mr. David Arnott and Miss Marion McLachlan. Mr. Shanks will furnish the rebuttal for their team.

The question to be debated is: "Resolved, That department stores are a benefit to our country." The affirmative will be upheld by Palo Alto, and the negative by Sequoia. The judges, who will be appointed by Dr. Elliot of Stanford, will be men chosen from outside of both San Mateo and Santa Clara counties.

Sequoia has won a number of trophies in debate, the most recent victory being that over Hoitts, but the winning of this coveted cup from Palo Alto will be looked upon as far the tallest feather in her cap, and will make '06 a memorable year in her history. By the toss of a coin Palo Alto secured the choice of sides, while Sequoia proposed the question, and in the end was able to bring the debate here.

Mart V. Donaldson in Trouble.

The Examiner of yesterday contains the following item concerning Mart V. Donaldson, who resided here at one time:

Mart V. Donaldson, editor of the Coast Adovcate and ex-preacher left Halfmoon Bay at day break Tuesday. His going was unannounced and because he left an unpaid hotel bill amounting to $100 a warrant was sworn out for his arrest, charging him with attempt to defraud a hotel. The complaint was sworn to by A. T. Gilcrest, proprietor of the Occidental hotel.

Donaldson's past record has been most unsavory. He was a Methodist minister for a number of years, and, after figuring in a number of scandals was expelled from the ministry by the Methodist Confernece. His first troub was at Pescadero, where he was pastor of the Methodis church. He was accused of appropriating church funds to his own use and of drunkenness; he resigned this pastorate under pressure. He then became pastor of the Methodist church at Redwood City, where charges of gross immorality were shortly brought against him. As a result of these lattre charges he was expelled from the conference. He hen went to Vacaville and became pastor of the Methodist church at that place, though he was not a member of the Methodist Conference. Ther he got into more serious trouble, involving young girls of his congregatio and he was given short notice to leave town. Later two young women of Vacaville were expelled from membership in the church.

Donaldson is well connected. His brother, the Rev. Fay Donaldson, is pastor of the Methodist church at Redding, where he is highly respected

The sheriff's office received a telegram yesterday from San Barnarlino announcing that Donaldson had been arrested there and would be returned to this county.

Death of Miss Florence Barry.

Miss Florence Barry, formerly of this city, died at Auburn, Placer county Thursday morning. The remains arrived at Menlo Park at noon yesterday and were interred in Holy Cros cemetery. Miss Barry was a lovable young woman who enjoyed the friendship of a wide circle of friends. Her death was a severe shock to them. Her father was at one time district attorney of this county. He died while in office and the vacancy was filled by R. G. Rowley.

Deceased was a native of Redwood City. Besides her mother she leaves to mourn her, three brothers, Edward, Everett and Frank Barry. Deceased was a niece of P. H. McElvoy of Menlo Park. Miss Barry attended the grammar school of this city and at Menlo Park. at which latter place her mother was a teacher for some years. For the past eight years deceased has made her homee in San Francisco.

A. T. Weeks came up from San Diego during the week and greeted friends in this city.

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO.

The Spring Valley Water Co. have a force of men at work repairing their large pipe south of town. In places this pipe line had settled several feet and it will require quite an outlay of money and work to put it in shape again.

The Rev. Ramey has been appointed to the charge of the South S. F. M. E. charge, Rev. Lewis having resigned. Rev. Ramey comes well recommended and has a wide experience, having been in the ministry a number of years in Canada and the U. S. We need a wide awake man of this kind here and trust Mr. Ramey will meet with success in his new field of labor.

Mr. Arthur R. Walker, chief engineer of the American Smelting & Refining arrived in this town from New York on Tuesday. Mr. Walker will have charge of the construction of the extensive smelting plant to be put in at San Bruno Point. Work has already commenced and will be pushed with the utmost vigor until the big smelters are ready to blow in and begin business.

Manufacturers from the city are looking this way for factory sites. Several have been out for the last week with a view to locating. Within two years we will have wharves leading to deep water where all large vessels can dock and receive and discharge cargoes. This, together with cheap sites, cheap taxes and plenty of room, should be a great inducement to those desiring to build new homes for their factories.

Woodside Chips.

We are slowly straightening out after the earthquake. Most all of the buildings that were damaged have been repaired and those too far gone are being torn down. The residence of Chas. Josselyn and A. W. Jackson suffered most, each of which will be torn down. Nearly everyone suffered more or less and the total damage will no doubt reach the hundred thous and dollar mark in this vicinity. The school is being repaired and will be ready for use next week.

The roads are becoming quite dusty owing to the tanks along the road being down. A good shower of rain would be of great benefit just at present but owing to the lateness of the season the chances are small for it.

Arnold Hess is busy widening the grade. The rest of the grade should be widened more or less and no doubt will be very shortly.

The many friends of Ed Greely will be pleased to learn that he is progressing rapidly toward recovery and will be home some time next week.

C. F. A. Talbot and family have returned from New York and will spend the summer at their country home.

Will Shine has returned to Mendocino where he is engaged in the milling business.

The Misses Lulu and Freda Meyer are enjoying a short visit with folks at this place.

Unpaid Taxes Are Not Delinquent.

Attorney-General Webb is out with a statement that taxes that have not been paid in San Francisco are not delinquent. The same rule applies to taxes in all parts of the state. The Attorney-General quotes the Code provision, as follows:

"Whenever any act of a secular nature, other than a work of necessity or mercy, is appointed by law or contract to be performed upon a particular day, which day falls upon a holiday, it may be performed upon the next business day with the same effect as if it had been performed upon the day appointed."

He explains that as the taxes were due on the third Monday in April, which had been declared a holiday by the Governor, the taxes are not due until the next business day. As every day since that on which they fell due has been declared a holiday, the taxes are not delinquent and will not be until the next business day. Inasmuch as the Governor has promised to give five days' notice before ceasing to declare legal holidays, persons will have that much time in which to meet their obligations—they will not be taken unawares.

SAN FRANCISCO IN WASTE.

Oh, Queen of the west with thy throne set in gold,
Renewing thy robes with the changes of the day,
From the ray spangled draping the firs to behold,
To the deep ashen vestment that creeps o'er the bay,
Thou sittest enthroned where the antipodes meet,
And the east and the west cast their offerings at thy feet.

Thou sitting in glory where the setting suns glow,
Enriching the pale light that illumns the spray,
Painting the Iris in its sky spanning bow,
Caressing the fog-drifts with breezes at play,
As Queen of the west we recall the today,
So slow to conceive thou hast vanished away.

Oh, Queen of the west how spoiled of thy charms,
What hand was so cruel as to lay thee in waste?
Are the stories of old, of Judgment's strong arm
So spoiling thy beauty as to leave not a trace?
Is this not somee token of Heaven's fierce ire?
In punishing sin with earthquake and fire?

Prostrate, yet not extinct, let thy Spirit bestir thee,
For hope gilds the future with a propitious glow.
Oh, launch not thy bark on despair's stormy sea,
Look aloft! for High Heaven has gifts to bestow;
Look aloft! and press forward beholding the lights,
Let not Opprotunity escape in her flight.

Arise from the ashes that shroud thy prostration,
Shake off all the smirching of thy direst distress,
For bounty is offering thee a rich prelibation;
Fortunes portion to the worthy is thine to possess,
Despise the cravens heritage, the Sybils feed disdain,
In justice set thy music with excelsior for refrain.

Lay deep thy foundations in the law of the Lord,
Inscribe on thy escutcheon no wild escapade,
But gird on the sword; the word is the sword,
By the brave and the true life's conquests are made.
With truth as a foundation add faith and hope and love,
Let the trend of thy ambition these cardinal graces prove.

Arise! destiny hangs her beacon e'er Oriental seas
As Queen of the west with thy Scepter in hand,
Throw commerces sails to the isle sweeping breeze,
For the powers cannot prevent thee the Ocean to span.
The Occident and Orient with the devotions of yore,
Bid thee rise in new splendor and reign evermore.

Regular Train Service.

The restored schedule of the Southern Pacific Railroad company went into effect this week. All local trains with the exception of the theatr trains have been put back on the usual runs. The schedule now includes fourteen northbound and southbound trains daily.

All trains will continue to stop at the Valencia street depot in the city until the electric service is restored at the Third and Townsend street depot and the Coaster, and other thro trains will continue to run on the other side of the bay from San Jose to Oakland and until the San Francisco depot is put in commission. They will then enter San Francisco by the coast line as before the earthquake.

Will Reside at Belmont.

Archbishop P. W. Riordan of San Francisco has rented the Dugan residence at Belmont for the summer. He desires to be near St. Patrick's Seminary during its rebuilding. It was his wish to get nearer the institution but there was no desirable building to be had .

Must Be Inspected.

Attention of property owners is called to the fact that they must have their chimneys and electrical wiring inspected by the proper authorities and receive a certificate. Insurance companies will not, in acse of fire, pay any policy unless this is done. At the last meeting of the board of supervisors each member was authorized to appoint deputies to do the work in their respective districts. In each instance a fee of 50 cents will be charged. This is an important matter and property owners should give it grave consideration. Inside of incorporated towns the inspection is done by deputies appointed by the town trustees. Supervisor MacBain has appointed T. C. Rice and Mr. Shrewsburry to do the work in his district.

Two Million Dollars Invested.

Up to date the Ocean Shore Co. has invested $2,000,000 in the construction of the coast railroad connecting Santa Cruz and San Francisco, the $700,000 paid in by the stock holders and $1,300,000 secured as the result of the sale of bonds. A large part of this money has been paid out for the right of way and the necessary depot grounds, mostly situated in the city of San Francisco. The cost of the many bridges located in the counties of Santa Cruz and San Mateo is enormous, one of them, located on the Wilder ranch, for lumber alone, costing the round sum of $8,000. This road, if finished as begun, and that is the intention of the company, will be almost a solid fill and excavation from one end to the other, making it one of the most substantial, costly and fastest roads in the world, a piece of engineers' work up-to-date in every particular.

A Good Example.

If all the manufacturers of building materials will follow the example set by William J. Dingee, president of the Standard Portland Cement and Santa Cruz Cement companies, not only will the rebuilding of San Francisco be facilitated, but the cost of construction in this entire region will be keptt down. Mr. Dingee has notified Mayor Schmitz that his companies will continue to sell sement at the old price and will refuse to sell to speculators. It is a pity the Cowell Lime Co. did not refrain from putting up prices. However, it must be said that the Cowell Co. was not nearly so grasping as some of the middlemen who added from $1.50 to $1.25 a barrel to the price of lime because the Cowell Co. added fifty cents a barrel to its price.—Oakland Tribune

The Board of Education.

At the meeting of the Board of Education held May 5, it was decided that questions would not be sent this year to pupils from the 4th to 7th grades. Teachers will conduct their own examinations. No papers or standings are to be forwarded to this office. The 8th grade examin[illegible] for diplomas will commence on Monday, June 25 in the usual places. Teachers whose schools are two miles from their centers and who have 8th grade pupils are to notify the superintendent of schools of the fact so that the questions will be forwarded to them.

An Explanation.

There is no use sending newspapers to addresses in San Francisco at the present time, as they will not be delivered. Second class mail, newspapers and periodicals, addressed to persons in San Francisco, will get no further than Oakland, where it will likely be burned. This will explain why copies of the Times-Gazette and other papers sent from here have not reached their destination in San Francisco. First class mail is delivered hence if you desire to send a paper put it in an envelopee and pay letter postage.

Paper Money.

There is all kinds of money in Redwood. The day of the greenback, the gold and silver note and the national bank note has come. Never in its history has Redwood City handled so much paper money, and the people are taking it without even close scrunity.

A month ago a bill was the exception. If one wanted to send a $5 greenback to his wife's uncle's aunt back in Missouri he had to go to a bank and beg for it. Gold was "it." Easterners may not be flocking to Redwood or other points in California but the money they loosed in the interest of charity is finding its way into circulation and is becoming a goodly part of the circulating medium of this city.

The Californian born and bred accepts the paper without question and to the man born and bred in the States east of the Rockies it looks good, even if it causes homesickness. Eastern money isn't so bad, after all.

Last Saturday all the professors and employes of Stanford were paid their salaries in greenbacks sent out from the east.

St. Peter's Church.

Important choir rehearsal on Friday night, 7:30, at the church.

Meetings of young ladies and young girls guilds on Saturday afternoon at usual places.

Sunday services—Holy communion 7:30 a. m., morning service at 11 a. m., evening service at 7:30 p. m.

Ladies' Guild will meet this afternoon with the young ladies Guild at the rectory.

Means Business.

Evidently L. E. Haircheet, president of the Interurban Railroad company, means business in constructing an electric foard from San Jose to San Francisco. At a meeting of the board of trustees of Palo Alto held last Monday evening he agreed to put up a bond of $20,000 to have the road in operation on the streets of Palo Alto by the middle of November. His proposition was accepted by the board and work will be commenced at once. This is highly encouraging at this time. It shows that capitalists have faith in the futre of thh peninsula.

The ladies of the party came on a shopping expedition. Probably they did not come altogether to study the latest modes or to acquire a knowledge of the best advices from the Parisian houses of fashion. More probably they were interested in procuring esculent eatables for the palatial tables of the Flood mansion in Menlo Park. This would have been done anyhow, if San Francisco had still existed as it used to be—the only difference being that what they did yesterday "in propria persona" was wont to be delegated to a trusted understudy, a fully fledged understudy.

No proxy could, however, do for Mr. Flood what he wanted done. He needed a shave, and he got or had it.

Mr. Flood could not very well send a deputy to a tonsorial artist to have done what he needed, so hither he hied. Mildly and gently the well-bred man sit in the chair where the bricklayer is wont to sit. He took his turn too, and when the query "Next, sir?" came, he did not autocratically plunge into the vacant seat, but begged his neighbor, an unostentatious son of toil, if he had the right of way.

Mr. Flood had some dollar bills. He paid for the work and he went his way.

The exodus of San Francisco forms the influx to San Jose. This is one of many cases in point. The barber, the milliner. the groceryman, the butcher, are alike reaping their reward. Let them follow the advice of the chairman of the united association which are now working to create a Greater San Jose:. "Give those visitors the best you can and they will stay here and deal with you even after the bigger and greater city of San Francisco has arisen."—San Jose Mercury.

Will Be Re-constructed at Once.

Stanford University will be re-constructed at once, and by next September every building necessary to the work of the college will be in perfect condition. Indeed work has already commenced and there is plenty of money on hand to assure the trustees that the repairs may be accomplished as quickly as they desire.

The structures will be rendered earthquake proof. Three experts have been appointed and their report will be the basis for whatever changes are considered necessary.

A closer examination of the wrecked buildings shows the damage to hav been not nearly as great as at first reported. Three most seriously injured structures are the Memorial church the new gymnasium and the new library. Of these the new library will probably have to be torn down. The new gymnasium is still in a condition to be re-constructed. The Memorial church is damaged probably to about the extent of a quarter of its value. The walls of the building are uninjured and the tower is standing. The magnificent organ which the building contained wasnot touched

The endowment of Stanford University is $28,000,000 which is to be expended in 'Building and maintenanc This is unaffected by the recent disaster.

AUTOMOBILE VINDICATED.

During the fire and since that catastrophe the automobile vindicated itself as a boon to humanity and one of the most useful inventions of modern times. But for the horseless carriage the loss of life and the suffering in San Francisco would have been far greater than they were.

In removing women and children, and the sick and infirm, smaller valuables, books and papers the automobiles did invaluable service while the fire was raging. In conveying physicians, medicines and nurses to where urgnetly needed they have performed inestimable service since. Their aid to the resumption of business and the restoration of order has been incalulable. No other method of transportation proved so expeditious and efficient.

The automobile never became hungry or tired; it did not take fright at roaring flames, falling walls or exploding dynamite; it did not endanger the throngs in the crowded streets; it climbed steep hills with ease and could go where there was only a semblance of a road. One could do the work of half a dozen teams and do it better, and it could move in and out of the debris where it was impossible to handle horses and wagons. Horses dropped dead from exhaustion or want of food or water, but the automobiles kept going. Supplying them with provender did not become a problem in the general deprivation.

In bringing provisions and other necessaries from near by towns the automobiles did splendid work. Unlike the trains, they ran at all hours and in all directions transporting all sorts of things, even carrying the mails, money and military officers. So infinite were their uses that there was a universal demand for them. The manner in which they stood the extraordinary strain put upon them is a tribute to their staunchness and their utility. Hardly a maker of automobiles but can point to the San Francisco fire as convincing evidence of the strength and value of his machines.

No more will the tutomobile be known as the devil wagon. It has proved itself to be a blessing in a supreme test which established its superiority over every other mode of conveyance in times of emergency. The San Francisco fire has proved its claim to being one of the greatest inventions of the age.—Oakland Tribune.

Mark Twain's Farewell Address.

It has been announced that Mark Twain would make his last public talk and give his farewell address to the nation in Carnegie hall, New York on the evening of April 19th, in aid of the Robert Fulton fund.

The address was wade to a large audience and it closed with a stirring appeal for sympathy and aid for the San Francisco sufferers. These were his closing words!

"I see the faces of many friends before me, and I hope all in this great audience will be my friends. When I am now saying good-by to a New York audience I am saying good-by to the nation, for a New York audience represents every state and territory in the country—the country which has always treated me most graciously. May yau abide in peace.

"But in saying good-by, I must ask you in the great name of humanity to remember that part of our nation now so terribly stricken. I appeal to you in behalf of that vast multitude, sheltered and happy two days ago, now wandering homeless, helpless, thirsty and hungry, victims of an immeasurable disaster. I beg you in the name of sweet charity of our common human nature to give freely from your hearts and your purses to smitten San Franciso."

The voice ofthe white-haired author and lecturer broke as he uttered those words—to be his last to any public audience—and then the applause broke into a thunderous acclaim.

Are You Tired, Nervous and Sleepless?

Nervousness and sleeplessnes are usually due to the fact that the nerves are not fed on properly nourishing blood; they are starved nerves. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes pure, rich blood, and thereby the nerves are properly nourished and all the organs of the body are run as smoothly as machinery which runs in oil. In this way you feel clean, strong and strenuous—you are toned up and invigorated, and you are good for a whole lot of physical or mental work. Best of all, the strength and increase in vitality and health are lasting.

The trouble with most tonics and medicines which have a large, booming sale for a short time, is that they are largely composed of alcohol holding the drugs in solution. This alcohol shrinks up the red blood corpuscles, and in the long run greatly injures the system. One may feel exhilarated and better for the time being, yet in the end weakened and with vitality decreased. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains no alcohol. Every bottle of it bears upon its wrapper The Badge of Honesty, in a full list of all its several ingredients. For the druggist to offer you something he claims is "just as good" is to insult your intelligence.

Every ingredient entering into the world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery" has the unanimous approval and endorsement of the leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice. No other medicine sold through druggists for like purposes has any such endorsement.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" not only produces all the good effects to be obtained from the use of Golden Seal root, in all stomach, liver and bowel troubles, as in dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, ulceration of stomach and bowels and kindred ailments, but the Golden Seal root used in its compounding is greatly enhanced in its curative action by other ingredients such as Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Bloodroot, Mandrake root and chemically pure triple-refined glycerine.

"The Common Sense Medical Adviser" is sent free in paper covers on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only. For 31 stamps the cloth-bound volume will be sent. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
